

After School – Across the Street

After/Before School Programs@ St. Matthews

St. Matthews Lutheran Church is located directly across the street from McKnight Middle School, at 1700 Edmonds Ave. NE, Renton, WA 98056

Students who attend either of these programs will be given a permission slip to be filled out and signed by their parent/guardian.

Thursday After School 2:35-4:00

The After School program provides a safe, fun place for students to have a snack, connect, complete crafts, take part in creative activities, music experiences, video games, engage with special guest speakers from the community, play basketball, and much, much more. This is a non-religious program offered by the non-profit, After School – Across the Street, in partnership with McKnight Middle School. The program is supervised by volunteer adults and high school students. At 4:00 when students leave the building they may walk home, be picked up, or ride the McKnight activity bus.

Friday Before School 7:15-9:00

A FREE pancake breakfast for students is offered during this time on late start mornings. Space is provided to connect, work on homework, and play basketball or board/video games. At 9:00 when students leave the building, they walk across the street to begin their school day at McKnight.
